

THEATREDOM Plays and Players and Their Realm

Speaking of the Keith Company, which comes to the Fraser Tuesday night, October 25, for a week's engagement, the Moscow Mirror says: "The Keith Stock Company has been at the Moscow opera house this week. 'Better than advertised' is a word that one can not often make of a theatrical company, but it is true of the Keith company. Their plays are all new and mighty pleasing; the company is composed of ladies and gentlemen—artists every one of them. In fact the Keith company is composed of a star, all the support being 'sticks' but of good actors perceptible influence upon the progress of the play. The supporting company has been selected with care and includes some of the best vander-ville talent and a strong singing chorus of pretty girls.

Fitz Quits Fighting and Acting.
Bob Fitzsimmons is out with the announcement that he is through fighting and acting. By next year Bob hopes to be restoring health to broken down millionaires. He also is desirous that a few wealthy people contribute to a plan he has for organizing a $200,000 stock company.

Al. T. Lane.

The money is to be used in purchasing and establishing a health farm near this city. Fitz says that he already has an option on a fine tract of land in New Jersey and that he will erect a hotel thereon, which will accommodate 200 guests. Fitz says that the place is to be so arranged that a man will not only seek to recuperate there, but will bring his wife and family along. With this end in view he has engaged Mrs. Wilson Cunningham, who won the all-round championship for women in England last year. She is to look after the women and children, while Fitz will instruct the male guests.

"Finnigan's Ball" Tonight.
Gallagher and Barrett and their company of fun-makers come to the Fraser tonight in the ever successful "Finnigan's Ball." The classification of this piece has caused the newspaper critics throughout the country much thought and worry, inasmuch as it borders on opera, tangles with farce comedy and is extremely spectacular and

TRANS-MISSISSIPPI COMMERCIAL CONGRESS.

Coming Session at St. Louis Expected to Be the Most Successful in Every Respect, in Its History—Experts in Different Departments of Thought and Action Will Make Addresses.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 22.—The fifteenth annual session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress is to be held in St. Louis during the coming week and a number of the officers and leading members of the organization has already arrived in the city to complete the arrangements for the gathering. Owing to the central location of St. Louis and the added attraction of the World's fair the congress this year promises to be the best attended and the most successful ever held by the organization. The program calls for addresses by many men of note. James R. Garfield of the department of commerce is expected to be present as the personal representative of President Roosevelt. Hon. F. J. Hagenbarth, president of the American Livestock Association, will be present and discuss the range interests before the congress. William E. Curtis, the well known newspaper correspondent, will tell of irrigation work in India. Other speakers will be Charles Jerome Bonaparte, president of the National Municipal Reform Association; F. H. Newell, chief of the reclamation service of the department of the interior; Gifford Pinchet, chief of the bureau of forestry, and Martin Dodge, director of road inquiries, United States department of agriculture.

Trade-Mark Treaty With China.
Washington, D. C., Oct. 22.—The state department is notified by Minister Conger that the trade-mark regulations which the Chinese government has adopted at the instance of the United States will be put into effect tomorrow. The same regulations will apply as to other countries, and the protection of American trade-marks is assured in the Chinese empire. Measures are now being taken to insure a similar protection of American copyrights in China.

To Consecrate Bishop Coadjutor.
Boston, Mass., Oct. 22.—Arrangements have been concluded for the consecration tomorrow of Rev. Edward W. Osborne as bishop coadjutor of the diocese of Springfield, Ill. The event will be attended by many prominent Episcopal churchmen.

YOU MAY BE CURED

544 Garfield Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., October 9, 1902.

After doctoring for eleven months and taking forty-three bottles of medicine and finding no relief for leucorrhoea resulting from irritation of a fallen womb I took Wine of Gardui and fourteen bottles cured me. This seems strange but it is the simple truth. Wine of Gardui helped me from the time I began taking it and having heard it praised so highly by friends who had tried it I felt satisfied that it would help me, and it did. It cured me. Took every bit of ache, pain and headache, cramps and dragging down sensations away till I felt young, strong and happy once more. It is a wonderful medicine and a true friend to women. When I look back on the months of torture I had it seems like a hideous nightmare. Wine of Gardui will cure any woman I believe. I have more faith in it than all other medicines combined.

Frances Kingsley
Vice-Pres., Chicago Historical Club.

How can you refuse relief when you know you are growing worse day after day? Nighting pains, irregularity, inflammation and bearing down pains make thousands of women miserable. Why drag through life never enjoying anything? Wine of Gardui has made over 1,500,000 weak and suffering women well and strong. We ask you to go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Gardui and begin to take it at once. Do that and the health Mrs. Kingsley writes about will soon be yours. If you think special directions are needed in your case, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
